Rosaura A Las Diez (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

Es una interesante novela en la que el misterio se configura a partir de las diferentes percepciones que los personajes tienen de un mismo hecho criminal. A esa novela le siguieron otras obras, entre ellas "Ceremonia secreta", que en 1960 obtuvo el Primer Premio de la revista Life para narradores latinoamericanos.

This book is excellent for fluent or not-so-fluent Spanish speakers. The plot is interesting and easy to understand, and there are some real surprises. I read it for a University-level Spanish class and though I did not expect much when I started it, I found myself wanting to read more than had been assigned (something that doesn't happen to me very often!)
The best novel I ever read, December 11, 1998

This short novel is simply beautiful. I received it today, and after 7 hours of continuous reading I finished it. With some happiness for ending it, and at the same time some sadness for finishing reading the beautiful writings of Marco Denevi. It's rich in vocabulary, and with lots of Argentinismos (like the prologue says) and the history itself is almost perfect. I don't understand why there's no a movie on this book... If you want to forget the lunch and dinner and stop working for a day, buy this book. There is a movie of this novel... No kidding!, February 17, 2007 By Aar Jaa Bee (USA, Earth) - See all my reviews This review is from: Rosaura a las diez (Spanish Edition) (Paperback) Yes... A movie based on this novel was released in 1958. I obtained a region 1 Arte Video edition (sono-film). It is in black and white and quite faithful to the book. I purchased my VHS legally but it took some time surfing the internet and negotiating its purchase from Buenos Aires, Argentina.
