Guerras Recicladas (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

"A pesar de ser un vívido y desgarrador retrato del auge de una clase de asesinos y mafiosos rurales culpables de actos de violencia y decrueldad a gran escala, este es también un libro sobre héroes. Lo que sorprende es que en medio del caos, la violencia y la hipocrésia de la Colombia periférica muchas personas demuestran una valentía y una fuerza extraordinarias al defender sus principios y los de los oprimidos y expropiados, y luchan por una Colombia nueva. María Teresa es una periodista y su aspiración en este libro fue la de precisar los hechos y contar por primera vez la historia real del auge de la mafia reciente oleada de paramilitarismo en Colombia. Y lo logró. Sin embargo, el libro es mucho más que esto, es un corte transversal, una crucial tajada caleidoscópica de cómo Colombia funciona realmente. Del prólogo de James Robinson, autor del libro Por qué fracasan los países
